

CVAI Sunday Takeaways Report

Nike Girls EYBL 14U • New Orleans Session II

Championship Sunday delivered the highest offensive efficiency numbers of the weekend. Multiple teams eclipsed 50% field goal shooting while several elite individual performances highlighted the closing day of bracket play. Pace, transition scoring, and perimeter spacing became defining factors across all major matchups.

Team / Player	Key Numbers	Analytics Takeaway
Team PRIME Nation	68 PTS • 51.1% FG • 15 AST	Elite spacing + ball movement
Kendall Croom	26 PTS	Primary downhill creator
Daisy Borchert	22 PTS • 6 3PM	High-level perimeter shooting
Cal Storm Taurasi	63 PTS • 52% FG	Efficient halfcourt offense
Aleka Putz-Garcia	23 PTS • 10-14 FG	Interior finishing dominance
4C Sports Academy	68 PTS • 17 AST • 9 3PM	One of best offensive games Sunday
Addison Brown	13 PTS • 11 AST	Elite facilitator
Reese Brown	21 PTS	Transition scoring impact
AEBL Defense	7 second-half points allowed	Championship-level defensive close
Jaelyn Rowan	26 PTS • 6 3PM	Premier shotmaker Sunday

Final Takeaway: Sunday showed the rapid offensive evolution happening across the 14U level. Teams that combined pace, spacing, and efficient shot selection consistently separated themselves throughout bracket play. The overall skill level and offensive execution throughout Session II exceeded traditional expectations for the age group.